Devil's Auction Wednesday Night. The bicycle craze is aptly illustrated and pantomimically illustrated in this year's production of Charles H. Yale's "Erewever Devil's Auction," and Manager Yale is so congratulated upon the immediate hit of his successor to his trolley car pantomime, which has created so much of laughs the past two or three seasons. The main point in the success of "The Bicycle Craze," is that it is timely, while the subject itself is treated in such an absurd manner as to prove more than funny to the most blasé show-goer. It deals with the rather startling and realistic experience of that great game, known from Maine to California as the "Hobo," in an attempt to secure by fair means or foul, a number of the "silent Sixes," and in their inability to do so, they manufacture a few home made machines from different articles, which are obtained under most trying circumstances. A number of very funny characters and incidents are aptly introduced and the entire episode goes from the start to the finish with a rush that proves conclusively that the general audience recognizes and appreciates anything that is novel and timely and in so doing stamp it with the seal of their approval, which means in managerial parlance, "capacity at every performance."

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARDSON, the well-known Druggist, 70 McGill St., Montreal, P. Q., says: "I have sold Ayer's Family Medicine for 20 years, and have heard nothing but good of it. I know of many Wonderful Cures performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and a particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The result was that of which effected a complete cure. I am much to her relief and her father's delight, and am truly glad to have so much to my credit in the strongest terms to the merit of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Cures others, will cure you."

For Consumption. For the last 20 years we have kept Piso's Cure for Consumption in stock, and would sooner think a groceryman could get along without sugar in his store than we could without Piso's Cure. It is a sure seller.—RAVEN & CO., Druggists, Ceresco, Michigan, September 2, 1896.

Don't make two bites at a cherry. What's the use of taking one thing for coarse, and another for fine, washing. Pearl-ne will do it all. For washing wood-work, tinware, silver, marble, glass, dishes, carpets, or anything you can think of, Pearl-ne is the best. It saves not only work, but wear. Let it help you in all these ways. You musn't think that the easy washing of clothes is all that Pearl-ne is made for. Prolifer and some unscrupulous grocer will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearl-ne." IT'S FALSE!—Pearl-ne is never peddled, and our grocer sends you something else. Beware! Send it Back. LARGES SIZE, NEW YORK.
